What's new:

Compositions 1.4.0 Version 1.4.0 has been uploaded. Changes in this release (2017-10-29) UI Fixes Fixed a bug in the «just mouse over the portrait» filter. Improved the UI of the «export to online soundtrack» dialogs in case of split VSTs. Added an option in «Overworld Map» to show the policy center. Now users of the «D&D 5E star map» theme can get a full overview of the game map. Addressed a bug in «create mission-call», where a «replace current interface with blank window» was done when a missions where created. Addressed a bug of «export events to online soundtrack» that caused errors in case of mission creations that was missing an «include both continents». The «export clipboard events» option didn't work with the «Classic topdown.» mission. Allow the users to export their custom UI buttons, by right clicking on a UI button. UI Proposals The «Sound Monitor» log and «Sound Monitor» window show the averages of the samples. The «Listening» window now allows a user to export all possible audio-related interface options as plugins. When opened from the «listening» window a user can right click on the «read sample» button to view all the audiorelated options. The «Modify favourite Audio Interfaces» is useful if the «Audio Settings» dialog is open. It also shows all the available audiorelated options when open from the «SoundMonitor» window. Toggling UI buttons. Addressing a bug that caused blue field mouseover events in «Attack Line». The «D&D 5e star map» map now has more dedicated buttons if the user right clicks on the «View Planet Info». Also, when right clicked on one of the displayed planets, the user gets the «Create Mission» option. Addressing «Descriptive names of UI buttons». The «Descriptive names of UI buttons» are now correctly localized thanks to a new localization package. The «Main Menu» dialog has now a «Toggle buttons» field to let a user toggle the visibility of a UI button. Addressing a player experience issue where a limit of
