The next step is to perform a reset by pressing the radio reset button. This is usually green, but do make sure. Then you have the selection button, this will be red. This is the step where you enter the VW RCD 310 radio code. Use the volume buttons, the clock button and the reset button to enter the code. Then press the home button. This is one of the most common and easy ways of unlocking the code. Simply use the radio serial number to decrypt it. This should result in a successful code. Then follow the instructions to get the radio code into your device. If you know what you're doing, you will then be set. Do remember that if you can't access your code, your chances of getting it back are slim. The device could be suffering from a hardware or software fault. This is common on the newer VW RCD 310 radio code unlockers. We will deliver your blaupunkt rcd 308 radio code by mail to you. Your code will be delivered the next day after your payment has been made. This is the best option if you need it right away. No one can guarantee the internet against failure and we never charge you for an unsuccessful delivery. Should that happen, you will be well informed about it. If you have problems unlocking your car stereo, you can try to find the code yourself. Searching the radio code online will be the most effective way. Simply type in the car radio code in the search form and you will find out everything you need. For the time being, you can find the codes for almost all brands of car stereos. So just choose a radio that you have, follow the instructions and you will get the radio code, which will unlock your car stereo!
